Sir,

Sub: Cr.L.O.P.No. 15960 of 2014 - Order dated 16.02.2015 - Reg.

The above matter came up for consideration before His Lordship Justice N. Kirubakaran on 16.02.2015. His Lordship has passed the following text of order:

"1. In spite of the amendment in the Societies Registration Act based on the recommendation given by the Human Rights Commission, Tamilnadu, that use of the words "Human Rights" to be prohibited, many organizations themselves claim to be "Human Rights Organisations", using those words in their names are conducting "Kangaroo Courts" and blackmailing the officials, police authorities, business people and the general public.

2. Therefore, particulars, what are all the steps taken by the State Government to eradicate these organizations, using the name of "Human Rights Organisation" and what is the action taken against the persons using the words "Human Rights Organisation" are required to be furnished.

3. The Home Secretary and DGP have to file appropriate affidavit giving the details as to how many associations in the name of "Human Rights Organisation" are functioning in Tamilnadu and what are all the steps taken to eradicate such associations and what are all the actions taken against them and report by 02.03.2015.

I, therefore, request your goodself to prepare a draft affidavit as directed by the Hon'ble High Court listing the particulars of such organizations and steps against them to appraise the same before the Learned Judge. The matter stands posted to 02.03.2015.
