Even nearby shop keepers, innocent people were beaten up and camera of a journalist was also snatched by CRPF personnel.

Background Information

For the past one year people of the Raha region have been protesting peacefully over their demand to establish AIIMS at Raha, Nowgaon district of Assam. Raha was selected as one of the proposed sites for establishing AIIMS by the previous government. The Union Minister of State for Railways and also the local MP from Nowgaon gave assurances to the people of Raha for establishing AIIMS there, which will be easily accessible for medical services to the people of other parts of Assam and neighboring states. The local authorities showed 650 bighas of land to the expert central team formed for the purpose of finalizing the site for setting up AIIMS in Assam. The committee was satisfied and found the land suitable for setting up the AIIMS project. Now, the government has decided to change the proposed site to setup the AIIMS at Changsari in North Guwahati, which was not part of the sites proposed earlier. People belonging to Raha area were staging protest against the Government's decision on setting up of AIIMS at Changsari. The CM gave assurance to the protesters to solve the issue democratically within 10 days before people decided to go for fast until death and also assured them that the Health Minister of Assam will visit them to discuss the issue.
